RealBiz360 Gets Star Power!

RealBiz360 obtains Star-Recommended Status from STARPOWER® Systems, one of the industries leading Real Estate Education Companies.

Arizona, March – 2008

RealBiz360's Virtual Tour Web Marketing System has been endorsed by STARPOWER® Systems as a Recommended Supplier. STAR POWER® Systems is one of the leading Real Estate Education Companies in the Industry providing events, seminars, products, and resources through its network of Top Producing Agents and Brokers who belong to the STAR POWER Club.

Founder by CEO, Howard Briton in 1998, STAR POWER® System includes over 300 top producing Real Estate agents from across North America who share their success through interviews, speaking arrangements, seminars and conferences to STAR POWER's network of other success-minded agents.

The STAR POWER Star-Recommended Supplier program includes only the products and services that are used and endorsed by top producing STAR POWER Stars.

"The STAR POWER Star-Recommended Supplier Program is a showcase for STAR POWER Stars to share with our network the businesses and services that they use and endorse. The program provides valuable Realtor growth resources for those looking to become more efficient, stimulate business growth and improve their bottom lines. I have heard nothing but good things about RealBiz360 and am excited about being able to promote them to the STAR POWER network", said Jeff Willner, VP of Business Development for STAR POWER.

Marsha Sell, a top producing agent with Coldwell Banker and STAR POWER Star member recommended RealBiz360 to the STAR POWER network of Recommended Suppliers. Marsha, who is a 35 year veteran as a Real Estate Agent shares her success training her peers as well as speaking and performing her listing presentation through the STAR POWER program. "Not only do I use RealBiz360, I think it's absolutely the best I've found on the market", said Marsha Sell.

"We are incredibly thrilled to be a recommended supplier for the STAR POWER ® System and very honored that this was initiated by one of our members. It has always been our goal to help agents grow their business and work smarter. This recommendation just enforces RealBiz360's mission." said Steve Marques, President of RealBiz360.

About STAR POWER ® Systems

STAR POWER Systems is a real estate education company. Howard Brinton, renowned real estate educator and motivator, started his Star of the Month Club in 1988 (renaming it the Star Power Club in 1992) with the idea that top real estate professionals, by telling their stories, can help others also become top producers.

Through the events, seminars, products, and resources that STAR POWER provides, STAR POWER Club is now the nation's longest running interview series developed specifically for REALTORS.
